COCOA POWDER

Since 1994, Newtown Foods has served as the exclusive North American agent and importer for Dutch Cocoa BV. Dutch Cocoa's extensive line of natural and alkalized cocoa powers includes the complete range of colors from light brown to deep red, fat content from 10/12 to 22/24, and items certified organic, Fair Trade, Rainforest Alliance and UTZ. Dutch Cocoa's high quality cocoa powders are among the best in the world and are an integral part of some of the leading global brands.

Our partnerships with Dutch Cocoa BV and several other quality cocoa processors allow Newtown Foods to offer customers the complete line of cocoa powders available for efficient shipment from our North American warehouses.

COCOA BUTTER

Driven by our partnership with Jan Schoemaker BV, Newtown Foods USA has been the leading supplier of cocoa butter to the pharmaceutical and cosmetic industries since 1994. Schoemaker's Olympus brand has been the leading cocoa butter for North American cosmetic and pharmaceutical marketers for more than 50 years. The company's unique refining and deodorization processes assure our customers that Olympus brand will meet and exceed all NF Monograph requirements in every lot.

Additionally, our partnerships with Dutch Cocoa BV and United Cocoa Processors enable Newtown Foods to serve customers who prefer the natural, rich cocoa fragrance of non-deodorized cocoa butter for their products.
